

July 29, 2015

Dear Employment Ontario Service Provider:

I am writing to share news about the Employment and Training Division's Service Delivery Advisory Group (SDAG). In accordance with the SDAG terms of reference, we are refreshing the membership.

As you know, SDAG is a forum for dialogue between the ministry and the Employment Ontario network, where we discuss operational issues relating to the delivery of Employment Ontario (EO) programs and services. As our priorities evolve with the changing employment and training needs of Ontarians, we will continue to strike a balance in representation of EO programs, services and client groups – across all regions of Ontario.

After many years of dedicated service on SDAG, six of the 11 organizations have stepped down to make space for new members. In consultation with current SDAG members and ministry staff, I have appointed six new members, who will be joining SDAG in September 2015.

We thank the following members for their contribution and commitment:

- Adrienne Haight representing Social Enterprise Employment Network
- Joanne Kaattari representing Community Literacy of Ontario
- Julie Garneau-Ferris representing Service Canada
- Maralyn Tassone representing Ontario Association of Help Centres
- Nancy McQuillan representing the Collaborative of Adult Employment Centres of Ontario
- Steve Robinson representing Colleges Sector Employment Services

Please join me in welcoming the following six new SDAG members:

- Daniel Giroux representing Collège Boréal
- Jeff Surridge representing Community Employment Services
- Jonathan Baum representing Sioux-Hudson Literacy Council
- June Muir representing Unemployed Help Centre of Windsor
- Nancy Martin representing Miziwe Biik Aboriginal Employment and Training
- Wendy Woods-Fontaine representing Job Zone d'emploi

I am committed to sharing information with you on SDAG's work through the Employment Ontario Partners' Gateway.

I look forward to our ongoing work together to help Ontarians improve their skills and find jobs.

Thank you,

Original signed by

David Fulford
Assistant Deputy Minister
Employment and Training Division