

The logo for Youth Job Connection features two interlocking puzzle pieces. The top piece is light blue and the bottom piece is bright green. The letter 'C' is integrated into the green piece.

Youth Job Connection

Scenario

A youth who holds a 900 SIN, and is a US resident on a seasonal visa is refusing to leave the YJC site. The youth is demanding service as he paid taxes in Ontario, rents a place and should be entitled to government services.

CASE STUDY #1

Module G

Scenario

A youth is in an open custody situation and would like to participate in the YJC program.

CASE STUDY #2

Module G

Scenario

A youth is in your office requesting service through the YJC program but is a resident of Quebec/Manitoba. He says he is looking for work in Ontario.

CASE STUDY #3

Module G

Scenario

A youth that you deem would be a suitable candidate for the YJC program is currently receiving EI.

CASE STUDY #4

Module G

Scenario

A 16 year old youth who is facing several barriers to employment and is not in school has been referred to your office for the YJC program. How do you address the needs of this youth based on his age?

CASE STUDY #5

Module G

Scenario

A youth client contacts your office. He is currently a registered Employment Service (ES) participant but heard about the YJC program and feels it would be a better fit. He told his ES service provider but says they are trying to convince him to remain in ES.

CASE STUDY #6

Module G

Youth Job Connection

Scenario

A participant is complaining that he has not been getting along with his mentor and hasn't seen him in over a month.

CASE STUDY #7

Module G