Do you have clients who are internationally trained and are looking to work as skilled tradespeople in Ontario?

The Ontario College of Trades (OCOT) and Global Experience Ontario (GEO) are teaming up to offer a training workshop that provides an in-depth look at the certification processes, resources and support programs available to internationally trained skilled tradespeople.

This workshop is ideally suited for frontline settlement and employment service providers, including employment counsellors, settlement workers, job developers, caseworkers, career advisors, community workers and information and inquiry officers.

What you will learn:

- How to guide clients through the process of becoming certified skilled tradespeople in Ontario
- How to refer clients to trades-specific resources and support programs
- Tips and advice to help clients find work in the skilled trades

When: Friday, March, 9, 2018 (9:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.)

Where: The Ontario Investment and Trade Centre, 250 Yonge Street, 35th floor (Main Theatre), Toronto
