

Particulars of Notice of Contravention and Review Decision

S. 49(1) Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 (“Act”)

Friday March 25, 2011

These particulars are posted following the issuance of an administrative penalty for which a review was requested. Penalties may be reviewed upon request within 15 days of receipt of a Notice of Contravention. The review decision is made considering not only the information originally available at the time the Notice of Contravention was issued, but also any new information not previously available that may have been supplied in support of the request for a review. On review, an administrative penalty may be upheld, rescinded or reduced. A review decision is final.

Description:	Original Amount:	Review Decision:
Act, s. 11 — Restrictions on advertising and soliciting On October 27, 2010, a Designate telephoned the school at 905-799-7333, the number provided on both of websites belonging to the school (http://bestcanadiantrucktraining.com/ and http://bestcanadiantrucktraining.yolasite.com) and spoke to Karnal Singh, who identified himself as the owner of the school. Mr. Singh confirmed to the Designate that it was the school the Designate was calling. Mr. Singh advised the Designate that he offers the following trucking programs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• AZ consisting of 10 lessons and one road test for $1,200. Each lesson lasts an hour and 10 hours total are spent on the road;</li> <li>• “Unlimited (AZ) lesson up to pass” including two road tests for $2,000. Thirty lessons in the truck is the minimum and sixteen in class hours are included. Each lesson lasts an hour, with</li> </ul>	$1,000 per day	Penalty was reduced to $500 per day for the period of December 8, 2010 to December 16, 2010 (inclusive). The balance of evidence available indicates that Best Canadian Truck &amp; Forklift Training Centre Inc. was advertising an unregistered private career college.

one hour per day spent in the truck for thirty days. Students must pay $75 for the road test. (46 hours minimum); <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• DZ consisting of minimum twenty hours on the road and sixteen in class hours for $1,000; and</li> <li>• Forklift course for $200.</li> </ul> AZ truck training corresponds to National Occupational Classification (NOC) code 7411 –Truck Drivers. Based on the preceding information, the AZ course at minimum of 46 hours in duration at a fee of $2,000 fits the definition of vocational program requiring the approval of the Superintendent according to the Act. Since the school is not registered and this vocational program is not approved, advertising of same is prohibited in accordance with subsections 11(1) and (2) of the Act, respectively.
Act, s. 7 — Prohibition against operating a private career college Under subsection 7(2) of the Act, no person shall hold themselves out as the operator of a private career college unless the person is registered. Based on the fact that Karnal Singh identified himself as the owner of the school and described the unapproved AZ vocational program at the school, the school is in contravention of subsection 7(2) of the Act.	$1,000 per day	Penalty was reduced to $500 per day for the period of December 8, 2010 to December 16, 2010 (inclusive). The balance of evidence available indicates that Best Canadian Truck &amp; Forklift Training Centre Inc. was holding itself out as a private career college without being registered.
