Dear David Griller:

I am writing to advise you of my decisions following a review of the administrative penalties issued to you March 22, 2011 on Notices of Contravention #139.

Section 39(6) of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 (the Act) gives any person who receives a Notice of Contravention the right to have it reviewed by the Minister of Training, Colleges and Universities. Pursuant to section 39(9) of the Act, as the result of a review, the Minister has the authority to:

- a) find that the person did not contravene the provision of this Act or regulations specified in the notice of contravention and rescind the notice;
- b) find that the person did contravene the provision of this Act or regulations specified in the notice of contravention and affirm the notice; or
- c) find that the person did contravene the provision but that the prescribed penalty is excessive in the circumstances and amend the notice by reducing the amount of the penalty.

As the Minister has delegated his authority to me, I have reviewed the materials provided by you and the Private Career Colleges Branch.

The following table outlines my decision on the penalties issued to you in the Superintendent's original Notice of Contravention. In accordance with s. 39(10) of the Act, this decision is final.

Contravention	Decision and Penalty
PCCA, 2005 s. 11 - Restriction of advertising and soliciting Daily Penalty of $1,000	Penalty rescinded.

PCCA, 2005 s. 7 - Prohibition against operating a private career college Daily Penalty of $1,000	Penalty rescinded.
PCCA, 2005 s. 8 (1) - Prohibition against providing vocational programs Daily Penalty of $1,000	Penalty rescinded.

In accordance with s. 49(1) of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005, this information is being posted on the PCC Compliance News page of the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities website.

Sincerely,

Original signed by
