Description:	Original Amount:
Act, s. 11 – Restrictions on Advertising and Soliciting The Superintendent of Private Career Colleges came to the reasonable belief that this School was advertising itself as a private career college without being registered and was advertising unapproved vocational programs that require approval, namely the Commercial Pilot Licence and Instructor Rating Training programs, on its website at www.rfc.ca . Each program was advertised as costing over $1,000 and over 40 hours in duration.	$1,000 per day The School came into compliance on November 28, 2012
Total:	$10,000
